Newtownards is a historic, bustling, market town located at the most northern tip of Strangford Lough, 10 miles east of Belfast and easily accessible to all main arterial routes to the city, airports and neighbouring towns and villages.

Newtownards is a popular residential location due to the wide range of amenities on offer, especially the variety of retail shops, restaurants, shopping centre, schools and historical sites. The highly acclaimed Regent House Grammar School is located within the town, not to mention the multiple primary and secondary schools to choose from in the area, to assure all educational needs are catered for.

Blackberry Glen is situated on the Belfast side of the town, just off the Mountain Road, which is popular due to its proximity to the arterial routes to Belfast and is known for its substantial detached homes.

It is an exclusive gated development, accessed via electric gates and a sweeping driveway off Golden Glen Road, in a private, secluded setting with each home being individually finished to an extremely high standard.
