

26 Picardy Avenue, Cregagh Road, Belfast, BT6 9JB

Asking Price £165,000

Tucked away off the Upper Cregagh Road and offering generous accommodation, 'Picardy Avenue', or one of the ex servicemen's homes' as they are often referred to, were built and named after the battles of WWI. They are a popular house type given the well proportioned rooms with 3 first floor bedrooms, a spacious lounge and fitted kitchen and a ground floor shower room completing the accommodation. Outside there is a side driveway with off street parking, and as it sits on a corner site, there are enclosed side and rear gardens, and a sizeable front garden. The convenience of many amenities would also be another key factor in considering this home, with local shops, leading schools, bus and arterial routes to name but a few, all located within a reasonable distance. The site that this home is set on lends itself to further extension (Subject to relevant permissions). With a chain free onward sale this home is sure to appeal.
